> THERE is a widespread opinion in the onutry that the 3-cent piece of 1851 la worth a good deal. A report has been ourrent for the past five years, and bas spread throughout the Union, that in bining that date of the 1-cent piece a lot of gold was by mistake melted into the copper. No such mistake was made. and the cent of 1851 is worth no more than any other date; but day after day the Treasury Department is in receipt worth, and what the tiovernment will pay for them.
